Methods of Digital Media Research (MA DMS, D1)

Titel (engl.):

Beschreibung:

In the seminar "Digital Methods", established communication and media science methods will be discussed with a focus on their contribution to research digital communication. The following methods are particularly relevant: methods of researching the digital, cross-media research, data mining, research on small and big data. In addition to an overview of these different methods, knowledge of planning and organisation of empirical projects will be acquired in the seminar. The seminar is taught in three blocks, namely on 1.4., 11.4., 12.4.2019, 9-18:00 each. Between 1.4. and 11.4. group presentations are to be prepared.
